

UNIT 6

Getting a Haircut

Words and Phrases to Learn

- trim: to cut a little bit
- barber- (sb) who cuts men's hair
- sideburn: hair that grows on the cheek in front of the ear (on men)
- trimmer: an electric shaver for long hair

Key Expressions

- How can I help you?
- = What can I do for you?
- Please have a seat.
- = Please sit down.

Hil How can I help you?

I need a haircut.

coat rack

Please have a seat.

Thank you.

John hangs up his jacket.

The barber points to an empty barber chair.

How would you like your hair cut?

Just trim it, please.

barber chair

Do you live in Austin?

Yes I do. How about you?

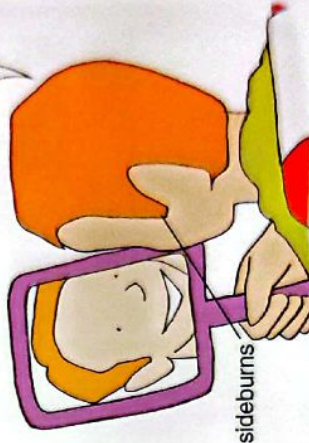

comb

apron

How does it look?

It looks great. Could you trim my sideburns, too?

sideburns

The barber puts an apron on John.

The barber cuts John's hair.

John looks in the mirror.

Do you want me to wash your hair?

No, thanks. I'll do it at home.

How much do I owe you?

Thirteen dollars, please.

Here you are. You can keep the change.

Thank you very much! Have a great day!

The barber trims John's sideburns with a trimmer.

John stands up and brushes himself off.

John gives fifteen dollars to the barber.