

Looking for a public toilet

Amber is in a town she doesn't know, and she needs to find a toilet.

Amber: Excuse me. Do you know where I can find some public toilets?

B: Oh, there aren't any near here. You'll have to go into the town centre.

A: And whereabouts are they?

B: There are some opposite the library. Not in the library - just opposite. They're not very nice though. And they're shut in the evening.

A: I might be too late then. Is there anywhere else?

B: Your best bet is a supermarket, or you could go to a pub.

A: I don't want to have to buy a drink. Where's the nearest supermarket?

B: The nearest one that has toilets is probably Aldi. If you just walk along this street, and then turn left at the traffic lights and go past the church, you'll see it.

A: How long will it take me?

B: I don't know how fast you walk. Maybe fifteen minutes?
