

Arriving at the Restaurant

Words and Phrases to Learn

- reservation: a request to keep (sth) for a customer
- host: a restaurant employee who shows people where to sit
- satisfied: OK; happy with (sth)
- shortly: soon

Key Expressions

- Follow me.
- This way, please.
- Will this be all right?
- Is this table OK?

Good evening.

John checks in with the host.

John and Mary Smith, we have a reservation for 7:30.

Yes... Mr. and Mrs. Smith. Follow me, please.

The host checks the reservation list.

Smoking or non-smoking?

The couple follows the host to the table.

Non-smoking, please.

Will this be all right?

The host asks the couple if they are satisfied.

Do you have a table next to the window?

John asks for a different table.

How is this?

The host takes them to another table.

Much better, thank you.

Today's special is sea bass and pasta for $10.99.

The host gives them menus and then tells them about the specials.

Your waiter will be with you shortly.

The host leaves.

Thank you.