

UNIT 2

At the Bank

Words and Phrases to Learn

- teller: (sb) serving customers at a bank
- denomination: the value of the money, e.g. $10 bill
- traveler's cheques: cheques guaranteed by the bank
- fee: money paid for a service

Key Expressions

- What size bills...
= What denomination bills...
- How many and what denomination would you like?
= How would you like your traveler's cheques?

Good afternoon!
How can I help you?

Hi, I'd like to exchange US dollars for British pounds.

Kim comes up to the counter at the bank.

How much would you like to exchange?

Two hundred dollars, please.

Kim takes the money out of her purse.

May I see your passport?

Yes, here you are.

Kim gives her passport and money to the teller.

All right. That's 125 pounds. What size bills would you like?

Five twenties, two tens, and a five, please.

The teller changes the money.

I would also like some traveler's cheques.

I'd like six 50 dollar cheques, please.

Kim counts the British money.

With the fee, your total is $307.

Here you are.

Kim pays for the traveler's cheques.

Please sign each cheque now.

Kim signs the traveler's cheques.

You're welcome. Have a great trip.

Thanks for your help.

Kim puts the cash and cheques into her purse.