

Words and Phrases to Learn

- bill: a list of charges for service, foods, etc.
- right: directly; immediately
- sign: to write one's name
- get up: to stand

Key Expressions

- Could we have the bill?
- Can we get the check?
- I'll pay the tip.
- Let me get the tip.

Could we have the bill, please?

John asks for the bill.

Here's your bill.

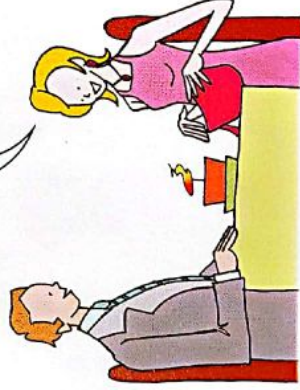

The waiter brings the bill.

Thank you. I'll be right back.

John gives his credit card to the waiter.

Honey, I'll pay the tip. Five dollars should be fine.

Mary offers to get the tip.

Here's your copy of the receipt.

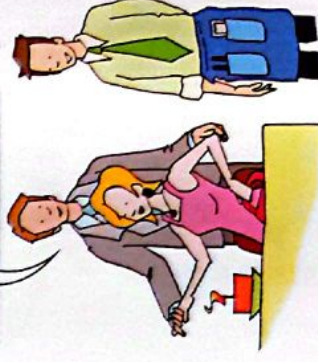

The waiter gives John a copy of the signed receipt.

John signs the receipt.

Thank you and come again!

Thanks. Good-bye.

The waiter thanks the couple as they get up to leave.